Lou was a homemaker when her children were young, which gave her time to tutor students at Sacred Heart Catholic School in reading and writing. Her places of employment included the Russell Newman Factory, St. Richard's Villa Nursing Home, Ace Hardware, Cavender's, and Fischer's Meat Market. She loved being around people and hearing their stories. She also volunteered as Cub Scout Master and Den Leader, along with Girl Scout Leader in her community. She dearly loved her Bible study and ACTS groups, reading countless novels, sewing, gardening, camping and her animals.

The family would like to thank her beloved Muenster community, neighbors, and friends for their visits, encouragement, meals, and prayers, as well as the wonderful care and compassion her many caregivers gave to her in Muenster, Gainesville, and Denton. Lou will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
