Dave was born February 15, 1941 in Muenster to William and Rosalie (Noggler) Haverkamp. Dave served his country in Vietnam. Upon his return to Muenster, he bought Muenster Machine Shop and ran the business for thirty years.

Dave loved living on the farm, gardening and raising cattle. He also bartended for many weddings. He fried chicken for the Sacred Heart Parish Father's Day picnics for many years.

Dave always had a soft spot for soldiers and always struck up a conversation when he saw someone with a cap showing their branch of service. They always had a story to tell Dave. He put the flag poles up at the Veteran's area in Sacred Heart Cemetery as a labor of love.

Dave loved to coon hunt and was known to have the best coon hounds in Cooke County. Many people called him from around the county wanting to run their dogs with his. They were all amazed at Dave's coon hounds.

Dave was a loving husband, friend and dad who loved Muenster, Texas and Sacred Heart Parish.
