“ Earl was an inspiration to many, he was very sweet to me and loved my dad like a son. I hope they're up there cracking one open and enjoying their time together.

“ Earl was a good man. My name is Tom and he was one of the many parents I met when I moved to The Colony, TX. He accepted me and treated me like a son. He is missed dearly and I wish I could have thanked him for being an influence in my life. There are too many stories to list...so many I remember like yesterday. Can I say one that often comes to mind out of the so many was the time his son Chris, had not listened to him and chose to put his new sound system into his vehicle, as Chris and I had done like so many times before going out to go to school and the stereo system had been stolen, everything was tied up and put back very nice all the wire nuts and things like that. We were baffled especially when about a week later some of the stereo system was placed back into his vehicle.. when we found out who this was it was pretty comical! The thief of the stereo was Earl. He had warned him not to put it in there so this was a kind of prank. I have to say this is just one of the great memories I have and will never forget! Rest in peace old man you will be missed!
