Evelyn was born on January 27, 1923 to Andrew Frank O'Connor and Cecilia Margaret "Sadie" (Nieman) O'Connor. Evelyn's early life was spent on a dairy farm. In 1964, the family moved from the farm into town. In 1965, she went to work for Russell-Newman in Saint Jo, where she would work for 14 years. In 1979, Evelyn left Russell-Newman to go work at Weber Aircraft where she would be employed until her retirement 15 years later. After retirement, she enjoyed SNAP and delivered Meals on Wheels to the home bound. Evelyn also enjoyed trips to Shreveport with her friends. When WinStar opened, she enjoyed going there for breakfast and fun with her friends. Other days when nothing was going on, she would go over to WinStar for a few hours just to pass the time.

Mrs. Monday was a very hard worker. She lived alone and was very independent. She was always ready to go and help anyone in need. She finally had to give up her home in November of 2017. That following January, she moved to River Valley Health and Rehabilitation Center in Gainesville and lived there until God called her home.
