

Lambert Paul Walterscheid

January 24, 1939 - October 4, 2023

Lambert Walter Paul Walterscheid, 84, of Denton, Texas passed away unexpectedly on October 4, 2023 at his home. He was born January 24, 1939 in Muenster to Harold and Marie Walterscheid. After high school, he worked as a butcher at Fischer's Meat Market until he was drafted in 1961. Upon his release in 1963 he returned to Muenster until 1970 when he moved to Las Vegas, Nevada where he worked as a butcher for Albertson. He retired in 2004 and moved to Denton where he enjoyed his retirement years by gardening. Lambert was strong-willed and stubborn at times, but he also had an enormous heart and wonderful sense of humor. Lambert was predeceased by his parents, Harold and Marie Walterscheid, a sister, Lynette Harris, two brothers, Delbert and Rainard Walterscheid and two nieces, Jimmie Lyn Harris and Delanne Walterscheid. He is survived by sister Shirley Grewing and her husband Hermie, nephew Brad Walterscheid and six nieces Starla Knapp, Michelle Green, Dayna Westmoreland, Amber Parson, Brandi Richardson and Raina Walterscheid. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, an organization Lambert felt strongly about.
