“ Linda and I were friends in Jr. High and High school. She used to hold the best parties. In Jr. High, spin the bottle comes to mind when you'd walk outside around the house with a boy and just maybe you'd give him a kiss. Linda's parents were watchful, but cool about it as long as you weren't outside for long. Linda was also a fashion icon for us girls. Whatever she decided was "in", was "in" for us, too. She was so sweet and kind! I cried for her loss when I saw this. I hope her family will be comforted by knowing so many people have such fond memories of Linda. My prayers are with you.
