“ I had the honor of meeting Loretta and Gus in 2011. Since then Loretta became a great friend. We would talk on the phone quite often, and she always asked about my wife, Loree. She and Loree were email friends, sharing funnies and some politics. We will both miss the friendship we had with Loretta.

Loree. I really hate I never met Loretta in person, but I enjoyed all the things Ted would tell me about her. She was quite a woman. RIP Loretta.

“ Loretta and I enjoyed the friendship of a group of girls who were like sisters in college. On the weekend we would hop on the Denver city bus to go "people watching" in Denver. Our favorite spot was the side of the ice skating rink next to the May D and F Department Store. In addition to that, we ate together in the school cafeteria, and attended Sunday Mass together where all the girls wore their graduation gowns. :Loretta and I exchanged Christmas cards every Christmas with messages about our children and husbands. In recent years, Loretta organized a mini-vacation for four of us for the Scottish Music Festival in Lavita, Colorado. Then, a bit later we all met in Albuquerque for the Balloon Festival. Our friend, Kathy organized that excursion. Whenever we gathered it felt like just yesterday that we had been at Loretto Heights learning well from the Sisters of Loretto. I was hoping for another excursion with these wonderful ladies. The next one will be on a street corner in heaven.

“ Gus, Julie, Vanessa and James,
I am so sorry for your loss. Your mom, reminded me of the Helen Reddy song “I am woman hear me roar “. Loretta taught me that you could be a strong and independent women, while still being a housewife. Your mom wanted the best for all you in your personal and professional lives. She was loving and selfless. A woman of strong Catholic faith. I especially loved her sense of humor. I don't know if y'all remember how she tricked your cousin's into eating squash pie by telling them it was pumpkin. Your mom will be greatly missed. It was a pleasure being your nanny. I love you all, Judy Gonsalves Tice.
