

Melvin Warren Gilbert

October 11, 1937 - February 7, 2024

Graveside service for Melvin Warren 'Mel' Gilbert, age 86, of Saint Jo was held at 2:00 PM on Saturday, February 10, 2024 at Starkey Cemetery in Montague County, Texas. The funeral was led by Minister Frank Johnson, one of Mel's many customers turned friends. Pallbearers were Don Thomas, Trey Wilkins, Brian Wolf, Steve Gillis, Andrew Grey, and Keith Brookshire. Visitations were held from 6:00-8:00 PM on Friday, February 9, 2024 and from 12:00-1:45 PM on Saturday, February 10, 2024 at Scott Funeral Home in Saint Jo.

Mel was born on October 11, 1937 in Point, Texas to Lola Bell Anderson and Willie Warren Gilbert. He passed from this world on February 7, 2024.

Mel enjoyed working and had various careers throughout his life including as an installer for Lone Star Gas, a Dallas Police Officer, and a 3M Salesman. Covering four states, Mel sold diamonds and solid jewelry for Town and Country Jewelry.

In 1968, Mel met the love of his life, Lois Doshier. They were married on May 3, 1969 in Lone Oak. Together, they traveled as Mel sold Jewelry.

After many years of various sales, Mel found his niche buying and selling over salvage and distressed freight. Mel created Gilbert Enterprises in Dallas, Texas where he and his family operated a wholesale warehouse selling to other salvage dealers from all over the area for nearly 50 years. They operated retail locations in Loan Oak, Point, Balch Springs, Garland, and Saint Jo. Mel dedicated 35 years to Gilbert's Freight Outlet off Highway 82 in Saint Jo.

Due to age and health issues, Mel downsized by operating Mel's Knife Shop. He sold knives, sharpeners, and custom hand tooled leather works.

Mel's sense of humor will be remembered fondly. On his childhood report cards, he got an 'a' for attitude. Mel enjoyed bartering with customers, who almost always became friends.

He loved traveling, riding motorcycles, and farming. Mel was a self-taught man who enjoyed collecting, history, and great conversation with family and friends. He also loved anything old west and watching the show "Gun Smoke".

Mel was preceded in death by his parents: Lola Anderson and Willie Gilbert; sister: Arnice Earnhart; and grandson: Brady Watson.

He is survived by his wife: Lois Gilbert; sons: Todd and wife Rachel Gilbert, and Wayne and wife Kaye Gilbert; grandchildren: Heather Gilbert, Holli Gilbert, and Matthew Gilbert; great grandchildren: Hayden Gilbert, and Henley Gilbert; and numerous extended family and friends.

“ I am late finding out about Mel's passing. It's difficult to find the words to summarize what a unique, kind, and awesome man he truly was. So thankful to have known him though it was not long enough. First met him and his sweet wife back in 2019 at their store. Instantly felt a connection and bond with them both. I have greatly missed being able to stop in at the knife shop to see Mel and of course Lois also. He had such a wealth of knowledge. Like I once told a new female customer of his at the knife shop, that guy (Mel) is the best salesman in Montague County. It's the truth. I miss you a lot Mel.

Mary and I met in 1962 and spent time with him at there home before I left for Germany. I came home in 1964 and we married at Mel's house. Spent deer hunting and other times with him. He was my last brother-in-law. Wish we could have been mentioned as living survivors, M ary was his youngest sister, it would have been a honor. I remember us waving by on the night of the 5th before he passed when we visited.
