“ Over the years, I got to know Norbert as a fellow enthusiast in the clay target shooting league. He was one of those people who was always fun to be around. My wife met him by coincidence when we were having lunch one day, and they became instant friends. That's just how Norbert was. His gentle good humor will be missed, and we, his friends, will have enjoyed life just a little more by knowing him.

I will always remember Norbert not so much as my cousin as I will remember him as a very dear friend. Back 48 years ago when I moved to Ft. Worth he opened his door to me and showed me love and companionship. He was a very dear man who I will miss greatly.
