Thomas Newell Thompson was born April 23, 1941 in Saint Jo to Newell Walter and Laura (Edwards) Thompson. He grew up in Nocona but lived more than half his life in Longview. Tommy married Carolyn Bailey and they became the parents of three children.

Tommy was a loving husband and father. He was an entrepreneur that designed and sold packaging and shipping containers. He also did wood working and refinished furniture. He loved to be in the outdoors, fishing, hunting, and trips to the mountains.

Tommy never met a stranger. He was a great storyteller but you couldn't always tell if his stories were true or if he was "pulling your leg." He loved trivia and always had facts to share about any subject. He enjoyed watching sports – especially the Rangers and the Cowboys.

Tommy is survived by his wife, Carolyn (Bailey) Thompson of Longview; daughters: LaChrista and husband, Gregg Fuscaldo of Euless, and Amy and husband Michael Ball of Denton; two grandchildren: Trinity and Tristan Ball of Denton; his sister, Kay and husband Elton Teague of Nocona and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, son, Gregory Wayne Thompson, sister, Sue Horner and brothers, Walter Thompson and Jerry Thompson.
